Mary Brennan, nurse practitioner, joins Atlantic Digestive Specialists

JUNE 2016, SOMERSWORTH/PORTSMOUTH/HAMPTON, NH — Mary Brennan, RN, MS, ACNP, BC, joins Atlantic Digestive Specialists, the primary provider of gastroenterological services in the Seacoast.

Brennan earned her master's degree in nursing, with a focus on acute care nursing, from Northeastern University. Prior to that, she earned her bachelor's degree in nursing from Central Connecticut State University and a bachelor's degree from Northeastern University.

Highly experienced, Brennan has spent more than two decades caring for patients with acute to chronic illnesses in Connecticut, Maine, and New Hampshire. Most recently she has worked as an acute care nurse practitioner at Portsmouth Regional Hospital.

Atlantic Digestive Specialists is the region's largest gastroenterology physician practice treating diseases associated with the esophagus, stomach, intestines, liver, and other digestive organs. All of our physicians (Drs. Baquero, Damianos, Epstein, Flavin, Grondin, Hyett, Lynch, Maher, and Ruben) are board certified gastroenterologists.

With offices in Somersworth, Portsmouth, and Hampton, Atlantic Digestive Specialists is dedicated to providing the most comprehensive services related to the digestive system and are the trusted colonoscopy and endoscopy providers.
